Indian Wells Offers Discounted Tickets to City Residents for October NBA Game

Indian Wells, CA – First the Pacific Life Open, then the LG Skins Game, now professional basketball! Indian Wells continues to emerge as the place to see premier sporting events. On Saturday, October 11, 2008, the Phoenix Suns will play the Denver Nuggets at the Indian Wells Tennis Garden in the first outdoor NBA game played in decades.

To celebrate this special nationally televised preseason event, Indian Wells is offering its residents half-priced tickets for this NBA exhibition game for loge and upper stadium box seats. Indian Wells residents may purchase tickets at Indian Wells City Hall, 44-950 Eldorado Drive, during normal business hours beginning on February 28. Tickets are limited and will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Residents may purchase up to four (4) tickets per household. Valid Indian Wells Property Owner ID card required for purchase.

General priced tickets are available through Ticketmaster beginning February 23 at 10 a.m.
