ROCHE TO BE SWORN IN AS MAYOR ON DECEMBER 6

Indian Wells, CA – Indian Wells Mayor Pro Tem Mary T. Roche will be sworn in as mayor on Thursday, December 6, 2007. The installation ceremony will take place during Thursday's City Council Meeting in Council Chambers at Indian Wells City Hall beginning at 1:30 p.m. Roche was first elected to City Council in November 2000, named mayor in 2003, and re-elected to the council in November 2004.

Current Mayor Rob Bernheimer will remain on the City Council; Council Member Larry Spicer will become Mayor Pro Tem.

The City of Indian Wells is governed by a five-member City Council, which also serves as the city's Redevelopment Agency Board. The Council elects from its membership a mayor to serve as its presiding officer for a one-year term.
